

Make your own vagina - in 21 simple steps!

So, it's a Friday night, and you're sitting at home because you're single. There's nothing good on TV. You're getting restless, and don't feel like whacking the monkey just yet.

Now you can make your very own vagina!
In 21 simple steps with a $1 bill.

1. Fold opposite corners together

2. Fold whole figure in half

3. Fold spine edge over

4. Unfold the thin spine edge

5. Fold top layer down along the new crease

6. Fold along the bottom edge, making a small accorian fold

7. Accorian fold down

8. Fold up again

9. Turn over and repeat steps 5 - 8 on the back

10. Open slightly and see side with 4 ridges facing upwards

11. Fold bottom edges up

12. Turn over and note center ridge should be facing up

13. Fold up from bottom

14. Make a point by bringing sides towards the center

15. Fold ridges to center

16. Fold top and bottom downward

17. Fold in half downward

18. Though fold is thick, it shouldn't rip

19. Open and pull the tip inside

20. Blunt the tip of point by folding back

21. Open and crush layers

Voila!
