

Lewd Attack Seductive Shopping

For those adventuress seeking an extra way to profit off their feminine wiles, here is a table and system for enhancing your haggling with seduction

Basic mechanics

If you wish to use your feminine charms to get an extra discount, roll your Seduction and add the successes as die to your Hagggle roll. Afterwards roll a D8 on the table to determine the vendor's reaction to the attempt. The table differs between men and women, though if you want more sexy times may well say always male.

The genders are determined by 1d6, depending on the store

Outfitters & Blacksmiths, Longhouses – Women on 1, male everything else.

Taverns, Black Markets, Rune Carvers, Gen. Goods – women on 1-2.

Alchemists, Magicians, Booksellers, Clothes shops – women on 1-3

If the table has you put out and you don't, the merchant is angered at being teased and you gain 1 Reputation, and autofail the haggle check (meaning you need to pay 10% more).

Having sex or servicing someone as a result of this results a gain of 1 reputation.

If you do have sex with or service the vendor for the discount and with roll double the successes required (so usually four) on the haggle roll, you get a 20% discount, except on the special event.

If you do have penetrative sex, roll the vendor's fetishes as if you would a companion, and then roll 1d6. If you roll 1+any fetishes that match your character or under (for women this is only bi-sexual), the vendor becomes possessive and blackmails you to come and either have sex or service him every 1d6+1-[applying fetish] days (min 1, that is – every day). If you refuse or fail to do this while in town, he will tell on you, giving you +2 reputation and a permanent 10% upcount for this vendor. These subsequent visits do not trigger reputation gain, though. You may also roll affection on this, and rule the same if the vendor finds out you cheated as if a companion did. Neither this nor special requests are binding if the adventurer leaves town or is captured. Responding to these and sex during it triggers Submissive. So long as you do this, you only have to haggle for the 20% discount, you always have 10% discount.

For example, Layla, the Elf Bard with Tit Bonus 3, seduces Henry the general store owner for a discount and they have sex. Henry has fetishes for elves and tits, so when the roll of d6 after the sex hits 3, he demands that Layla show up every [roll of 1d6 results in 3 = 3+1-2 = 2) every two days or else he'll blow the whistle and she won't be a welcome guest.

This functions as prostitution also for the prostitution fetish – attempting this triggers lust gain, any sex, besides the follow up visits as a result of this trigger pleasure gain, and the fetish gives +1 dice for the seduction roll.

If you fail to make the vendor cum by service, he or she'll demand to finish it themselves with penetrative, but if you refuse, throw you out of the store for the day.

As the High Elves disdain prostitution, this doesn't work in the Fey Forest

Male Vendor Table (1d8)

1	The vendor is a prude and insulted at the attempt. You fail the Haggle check and gain +1 reputation
2-3	The vendor is charmed, but not enough to actually make any moves. Resolve the haggle check with the bonus
4-5	The vendor gets the message loud and clear – he wants some service. Roll prostitution client table to see if he has a specific request.
6-7	The vendor gets the right idea – but wants something more than mere service – he wants sex.
8	See special request sections. Unlike the service and the sex, the request may be freely refused.

Female Vendor Table (1d8)

1-2	The vendor is a prude and insulted at the attempt. You fail the Haggle check and gain +1 reputation
3-5	The vendor cares much more about coin than your womanly virtues. Probably because she isn't bi.
6-7	The vendor is down to lose some coin for lesbian sex
8	See special request section. Unlike the service and the sex, the request may be freely refused.

Special Requests

These are considerably more extreme and perhaps even long term lewd requests, that carry with them the promise of considerable amounts of free goods. These depend on the establishment you are shopping at, but can be given by both men and women. They may also be refused on principle before agreeing to take them on.

For hag magicians use Alchemist or Magician, for Witches – magician or black market. Hag magicians and witches are also always female obviously.

General Goods

The vendor has a young male relative, who really needs to lose his virginity and learn how to please a woman and they is willing to let you walk away with 100 gold of free goods a night. This involves having sex with the guy (with your lead) and Accumulating 10 successes of teaching, rolled once every day you rendezvous – though the time limit is five days, else the vendor thinks you are delaying on purpose and gets angry and gives you reputation.

Outfitter/Blacksmith

Their smithy crew needs some bonding, so the vendor is willing to hire you as a deluxe entertainer for the night for either a single purchase of up to 500 gold (without discount) or a static discount on a single purchase of 500 gold. This will involve attending the 2d4+1 or 3d4+2 in a town that has a smithy guys (mostly, maybe also girls, especially the vendor. As the player wishes) for a private evening feast with the happy ending of being the center of a gangbang. This offer remains live until taken up even if not today (and for this purchase resolve haggling normally).

Clothes Shop

The owner is secretly an artiste of raunchy clothing with a particular method. Pumping one self full of aphrodisiacs and using that lust to design it – merely they need a model. Not merely to model for him, but also to induce the post-nut clarity needed to sort those lustful thoughts into actionable designs. If you accept roll 1d4+2 (for exposed) + arousing body features (Face, tits, butt, thighs) + 1 for every fetish of the other person that applies. This is the amount of times you will have to service the vendor during this marathon session. If you run out of stamina, they will use your body anyways. For this you will receive a singular purchase of up to 500 gold for free, or a 500 gold discount on a single purchase. And the offer will be up again without rolling once the vendor recovers in 2d4+2 days.

Alchemist

Human semen mixed with female genital fluids is for one reason or another a potent substance that is difficult for legitimate alchemists to acquire. For every separate man you can seduce, have him cum inside you and return to them within the day, allowing them to get the semen out of you, you get either one free regular potion or set of bombs or 100 gold off an artefact purchase. This offer remains open and trying this en-masse functions similarly to prostitution as a work and entails similar reputation gain.

Bookseller

The vendor turns out to be an author of particularly raunchy books, but themselves doesn't have experience with unorthodox partners. To this end they want you to go and find

1d6(Inner Kingdoms):

- 1 – A group of orcs
- 2 – A minotaur
- 3 – an Ogre
- 4 – a group of lizardmen
- 5 – a group of goblins
- 6 – A group of wolfmen

Blood Moon(1d4)

- 1 – a group of Mermen
- 2 – a werewolf
- 3 – a Sharkman
- 4 – a river troll.

Have sex with them and describe the experience in detail. For this you may gain 1 free book. If you have a fetish for those creatures, the vendor is particularly impressed and you can browse (study without buying) freely for a week. This, outside of rolling, will come up as an offer in 3d6+3 days.

Magician

Slimeblood is a very precious substance to all magicians, which is a shame because outside a slime infestation it is hard to acquire. This magus has a solution, and he is willing to hand over a spell and maybe help with magic training if you participate. Merely copulate with their 1d4 captive slimes and gestate the new slimes, an overnight process, meaning you do not get a good night's sleep. Birthing slimes always counts as rape and is rolled as if you were having sex with 1d4 regular slimes. The offer is always open.

Tavern/Longhouse

The tavern keeper is willing to do you one better – he'll let you stay in the tavern for free, food and drinks included – if you agree to do some work on the back.

Roll 1d4

- 1 – You become the inkeep's bedwarmer, have sex or service him every night you stay in the tavern. Reroll once if inkeep is a woman.

2 – You become the tavern whore, prostitute yourself to 1 group of 1d-1(min 1) men every night, which the innkeeper provides, with him gaining all the money. They may be the ones that approach you as part of A2, however.

3 – You have to do a glory hole every other night (see Brothels of Great Cities). If in the High North, you have to be free use for every other evening. Roll 1d4+bonuses (as if you were rolling in exposed clothes, which you are) that is how many northmen you will have to publicly service. This gives you +2 reputation, +1 for every time after the first.

4 – You become a dancer or a musician, but with a happy ending – dancing or making music in Exposed clothes and using the Great City brothel work tables once an evening – with necessity to comply with the lewd requests (S2-4, S3-3, S3-4) and get no money. You dance in exposed clothes the innkeeper provides. Reroll once if you do not have singing, dancing or playing music.

For 2, 3 and 4 other lewd entanglements, such as getting gangbanged at a party are valid excuses – not so for number 1, and you should roll affection for the tavernkeeper to see if they get mad for cheating. You have one second chance, if you agree to this and fail to do this for no good reason more than once, you get permanently banned from the tavern.

The Black Market

Pussy is in high demand in the night world, for various reasons and purpose, and willing pussy even more so. For these guys the deal is simple – help some local unscrupulous warlock by being the willing fuckmeat of some demonic ritual by having sex with

1d4

1-2 – A minor demon

3 – a Succubus

4 – an Incubus

While under the effects of an aphrodisiac, and you will get either any item, book or spell, or three potions of your choice.

Runecarver

The Rune carver will give you the rune for free, if you agree to let him also draw some lewd runes in addition, Roll 1d6

1 – Crotch tatoo +1d6 pleasure dice from penetrative sex, +1 lust gain from all fetish triggers, all mindbreaks give 1 lusty in addition to the regular effect

2 - head and neck +1 Pretty Face, receive pleasure from giving blowjobs, gain successes as lust when seducing

3 – Breasts +1 tits, receive pleasure from titjobs, give full bonuses to enemy lust and for seduction even if only revealing

4 – Butt, +1 Butt, receive pleasure from buttjobs, +1 Lust from gropes

5 – Hands, +1 hands, receive pleasure from handjobs, +1 lust from all acts of service (only this if carver is female)

6 – Thighs +1 Thighs, receive pleasure from thighjobs, gain 1d4 lust from Athletics, running, sneaking and dancing checks.

And you must at least once every 1d4-1 days come pleasure them with the enhanced aspects (for example, a head tattoo would mean sucking dick) so long as you remain in town, same as if the vendor turns out possessive when just having regular sex.
